Is Hearing Loss Keeping You on the Sidelines?

Learn to Lip Read! Benefits include:

- Ability to communicate, even in noisy environments
- More accurate understanding of what is being said.
- Better employment opportunities – those who communicate more easily are more readily hired, regardless of any handicap
- Feeling at ease in social situations
- Reducing stress and frustration
- Increased confidence – feel part of a group because you understand the conversation.

Coach Cheryl Nolte Has the Right Experience

Lip Reading can be life changing for those of us with hearing loss. With over seven years of training, I spent an additional two years developing the training syllabus that I now use in my classes.

Since 2014, I have taught lip reading to over 150 people. My students have ranged in age from 22 to 97. They've come from a variety of places including assisted living facilities and adult education centers.
